

Latinos in Long Prairie, Minnesota

Long Prairie's Population by Ethnicity 2010

- Hispanic/Latino: 29.90%
- White: 81.78%
- Black or African American: 1.04%
- Asian: .61%
- Native American: .64%
- Other Ethnicity: 15.93%

Long Prairie's Median Income by Ethnicity

Latinos in Long Prairie: 2000	Change in Population	Latinos in Long Prairie: 2010
285 Latinos	749 Latinos	1,034 Latinos
9.38%	262.81%	29.90%

"The population of Long Prairie, a city of 3,500 people northwest of the Twin Cities, is now almost 1/3 Latino, according to US Census data. That's up from 1% in 1990."

"Nowhere is the relative youth of the Latino community more evident than in the Long Prairie-Grey Eagle school system. Latinos comprise ¼ of the overall student body and around ½ of kindergartners and 1st and 2nd graders."

